

Abbott Pentothal Postcards

Code Letters at the base of the vertical line appear on only on 14 divided-back postcards (exceptions in parentheses after code letter)

- A = English text to doctors or hospitals in USA (A to Canada for #59 and #155 – possibly in error as #59 and #155 B cards are unreported)
- B = English text to doctors in Canada (C to Canada for #178)
- C = English text (no salutation) to nurse-anesthetists in USA (B for #178n)
- D = French text (C for #59fr)
- E = Dutch text (E for #58po, #124gr, and #178ge)
- F = Greek, German, or Spanish text (F for #58gr, #74sp, #124ge, and #177ge)
- G = Spanish text (G for #124it and #177it)
- H = Spanish text (H only for #124sp and #177sp when G = Italian text)
- I = not recorded/reported
- J = Swedish text
- K = not recorded/reported
- L = Portuguese text (only for #124po)
- S = Swedish text (only for #178sw)

Abbott cards with code letters at base of vertical dividing line (exceptions to codes above in parentheses):

- #58 – Great Britain, Lundy (1962) (E = Portuguese text)
- #59 – Great Britain, Wales (A = English text to USA and Canada, C = French text to Quebec)
- #74 – Ireland, Emerald Isles and Winding Bays (1961)
- #78 – Italy, Università di Bologna (1961)
- #94 – Maldives, Juma Mosque (1962)
- #112 – Mexico, El Castillo y las Mil Columnas (1961)
- #124 – Netherlands Antilles, “Koningin Emma” Schipbrug (1959) (E = Greek text, G = Italian text, H = Spanish text, L = Portuguese text)
- #128 – New Zealand, Mt. Egmont (1961)
- #140 – Portugal, Belém, Lisboa (1961)
- #149 – Singapore, riverfront (1962)
- #155 – Spain, Toledo, Bridge of Alcantara (1963?) (A = English text to USA and Canada, C = French text to Quebec)
- #159 – Surinam, Governments Plein, Paramaribo (1960)
- #177 – USA, Juneau, Mendenhall Glacier (1959) (G = Italian text, H = Spanish text)
- #178 – USA, Hawaii, Waikiki beach (1959?) (B = nurse, C = to Canada, E = German text, S = Swedish text)